Programming Question 3 Post Mortem

Question 1   Programming [12 marks]

- Very well done in general. Any mistakes that did exist were spread evenly between the four texts.

- Some students lost marks due to run time errors which crashed the test program.

Question 2   Experiment [4 marks]

- Some students did not put a table of ratios, instead writing only the costs.

- Some students did not explain their choice of texts.

Question 3   Style [2 marks]

- These marks were allocated for ensuring no prohibited libraries were used and for decent coding style.
